Indivisible Asheville/WNC Officially Endorses David Wilson Brown and Phillip Price for US House of Representatives

Indivisible Asheville/WNC has announced its endorsement of David Wilson Brown (D), Candidate for US House of Representatives, District 10, and Phillip Price (D), Candidate for US House of Representatives, District 11. Brown is running against incumbent Patrick McHenry (R) and Price is running against incumbent Mark Meadows (R).

“We’ve interviewed Brown and Price extensively, and concluded that they will be a strong voice in the US House, representing progressive values, defending our democracy, the environment, civil rights, health care, immigration reform, and gun safety,” said Cindy McGrayne, the leader of Indivisible Asheville/WNC’s Congress Watch action team.

Indivisible Asheville/WNC selected candidates to endorse after an extensive series of interviews with candidates appearing on the ballot in the primary election for U.S. Congressional Districts 10 and 11. Invitations for interviews were extended to all candidates appearing on the ballot, including incumbents Patrick McHenry (District 10) and Mark Meadows (District 11).
